REVIEW AND APPROVAL OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

1. Approval of the Audit Committee

- I. Identification of Related Party Transactions:
The chief financial officer of the Company ("CFO") is responsible for the identification of the potential Related Party Transactions and for providing necessary information in advance to the company secretary of the Company ("Company Secretary") for initiating the process to obtain the necessary approvals of the Audit Committee.

II. Approval process:

- i. All Related Party Transactions and subsequent Material Modifications shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee. Accordingly, all proposed Related Party Transactions must be reported to the Audit Committee for prior approval by the Committee.
- ii. The CFO or Company Secretary shall provide to the Audit Committee all relevant material information of all Related Party Transaction(s), including the terms of the Related Party Transaction(s), the business purpose of the Related Party Transaction(s), the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party.
- iii. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:
 - a) Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on an arm's length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
 - b) Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of a director or key managerial personnel of the Company;
 - c) Whether the proposed Related Party Transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed Related Party Transaction; and
 - d) Whether the Related Party Transaction is in the nature of the conflict of interest for any director or key managerial personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the directors, key managerial personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board or the Audit Committee deems relevant; and
 - e) Whether there are any compelling business reasons or rationale for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any.
- iv. Subject to the provisions of the applicable laws, the Audit Committee will have the discretion to approve/modify/reject/recommend/refer the proposed Related Party Transaction for the approval of shareholders.
- v. Only those members of the Audit Committee who are independent directors, shall approve Related Party Transactions

III. Transactions involving Subsidiaries

- i. With effect from April 1, 2023, a Related Party Transaction to which the Subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, shall require prior approval of the Audit Committee if the value of such transaction whether entered into individually or taken together with previous transactions during a financial year, exceeds 10% (ten percent) of the annual standalone turnover, as per the last audited financial statements of the Subsidiary-
- ii. However, prior approval of the audit committee of the Company will not be required for a Related Party Transaction to which the Company's listed Subsidiary is a party but the Company is not a party, if regulations 23 and 15(2) of the Listing Regulations are applicable to such listed Subsidiary.
- iii. For Related Party Transactions of unlisted Subsidiaries of a listed Subsidiary of the Company, the prior approval of the audit committee of the listed Subsidiary shall suffice.

IV. Omnibus Approval

The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to the following conditions:

- i. The Audit Committee shall, after obtaining approval of the Board of Directors of the Company ('the Board'), specify the criteria for making omnibus approval for related party transactions, which shall include the following:
