SURGE OF DEVOTEES DURING HOLY DIP ON MAUNI AMAVASYA

Pre-dawn stampede at Kumbh, at least 30 killed

MANISH SAHU & MAULSHREE SETH
Prayagraj, January 29

THIRTY PEOPLE DIED and at least 60 were injured in a pre-dawn stampede Wednesday at the Maha Kumbh in Prayagraj where hundreds of thousands gathered to take a dip at the Sangam.

The incident took place shortly after 1.30 am as people headed towards the Sangam Nose – it's the strip of land at the confluence of the Ganga, Yamuna and the mythical Saraswati – for a ritual bath on the day of Mauni Amavasya which is considered auspicious.

The dead and injured were taken to medical facilities on the Maha Kumbh grounds and to hospitals in the city. Following the incident, the snans (ritual bath) were halted but resumed in the afternoon. Officials estimated that over 100 million people had taken a dip in the waters until evening.

Officials blamed the incident on the heavy rush towards the Sangam Nose and felling of barricades on the route meant for akharas headed for the Amrit Snan. Witnesses said the stampede took place when a crowd going towards the Sangam ran into those returning. Other witnesses said barricades along the route meant for the akharas were felled and people charged towards the Sangam Nose.

Vaibhav Krishna, DIG Kumbh, said, "Thirty people have died out of which 25 have been identified. Sixty have been injured."

Chief minister Yogi Adityanath, while condoling the deaths, announced the formation of a probe committee.

"All these incidents are heartrending and a lesson as well. But we need to find the root cause of the incident... The government has decided to conduct a judicial inquiry. We have formed a three-member judicial commission, comprising Justice Harsh Kumar, former DG V K Gupta and retired IAS officer VK Singh," he said. He also announced an ex gratia of ₹25 lakh each for the kin of the deceased.

PM Narendra Modi called the incident "extremely sad" and said, "My deepest condolences to the devotees who have lost their loved ones in this. Along with this, I wish for the speedy

Opposition alleges 'VIP culture'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
New Delhi, January 29

WITHIN HOURS of the stampede at the Maha Kumbh in Prayagraj, leaders of Opposition parties targeted the Centre and the Yogi Adityanath government in UP, alleging that "mismanagement" and "VIP culture" led to the mishap and deaths. Leader of Opposition Rahul Gandhi blamed the "VIP culture" for the incident and said it should be curbed and the government "should make better arrangements to meet the needs of common devotees".

"Mismanagement and the administration's special focus on VIP movement, instead of common devotees, are responsible for this tragic incident," he said. SP chief and former UP CM Akhilesh Yadav suggested that the management and administration of the Kumbh should be handed over to the Army to restore trust among the devotees and the saints. "Those who are making tall claims of world-class arrangements at the Maha Kumbh... should take moral responsibility for the deaths and should resign from their positions," Yadav said, calling for stepped-up surveillance from the air.

Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge also blamed "VIP movement" and "attention to self-promotion rather than management and mismanagement" for the incident.

recovery of all the injured. The local administration is engaged in helping the victims in every possible way. In this regard, I have spoken to chief minister Yogi and I am in constant touch with the state government."

Following the incident, Chief Minister Adityanath had urged devotees not to insist on taking a dip only at the Sangam Nose. He said several temporary ghats had been prepared for this.

Ballia resident Baljeet Singh, whose wife Rinki died in the stampede, told The Indian Express: "It was around 1:30 at night. We were about 50 metres from the Sangam Nose when suddenly a huge crowd came towards us from the Sangam Nose end. Both crowds overlapped. There was no place to run or hide. I held on to my wife as long as I could but people stepped on me, and the crowd dragged me away."

Stiff Campa competition keeping us sharp: Murphy

THE JUBILANT BHARTIA Group last month had picked up a 40% stake in Hindustan Coca-Cola Beverages (HCCB), the bottling arm of Coca-Cola in India. Franchise bottlers and HCCB share a 50:50 split in terms of bottling territories. While HCCB covers largely the south and west of India, franchise bottlers cover the north and east of the country. "We are huge believers in the power of the franchise model. It has been at the centre of value creation for a long time for us. While we have gone through iterations in the last few years, our stated objective is to rebrand some of the bottling operations we own in markets such as India. Our bottling operations here are consistent with that strategy, where we are investing with partners who have the same ambition and vision as us for the industry," he added.

Murphy also said that the urban slowdown in India was a "temporary phenomenon" and that it was looking to the upcoming Union Budget to address slowdown concerns within urban areas. "The relative strength of rural areas that is flowing through for FMCG companies, present a huge opportunity for Coca-Cola in India. The evolving retail channel dynamics as q-commerce grows here is something we are watching closely as we adapt to stay ahead," he said.

Murphy also said that the company was looking to increase its presence in premium spaces within tea and hydration. At the same time, it would look to counter PepsiCo's domination in energy drinks with more offerings at the value end of market, where the former has Sting Energy.
